YOU, the Senior Class of 1954, have now completed your college years. During your life at I. S. T. C., three-dimensional movies and three-dimensional artwork have become very popular. In this, your yearbook, we are using a three-dimensional style of artwork, paper sculpture, to illustrate many of the things you see on the campus.

Your life here was a busy one. It was a continuous struggle for you to get those chapters read for tomorrow or that term paper done for next week. You also had a full schedule of extra-curricular activities: that sorority meeting last night, Laughter practice tonight, a PENN meeting tomorrow night. You will always remember the fun and work you had at I. S. T. C.

To you, who are going to be the future teachers of America, we wish many rewarding moments in teaching and we, the underclassmen, wish to dedicate the 1954 OAK to you.

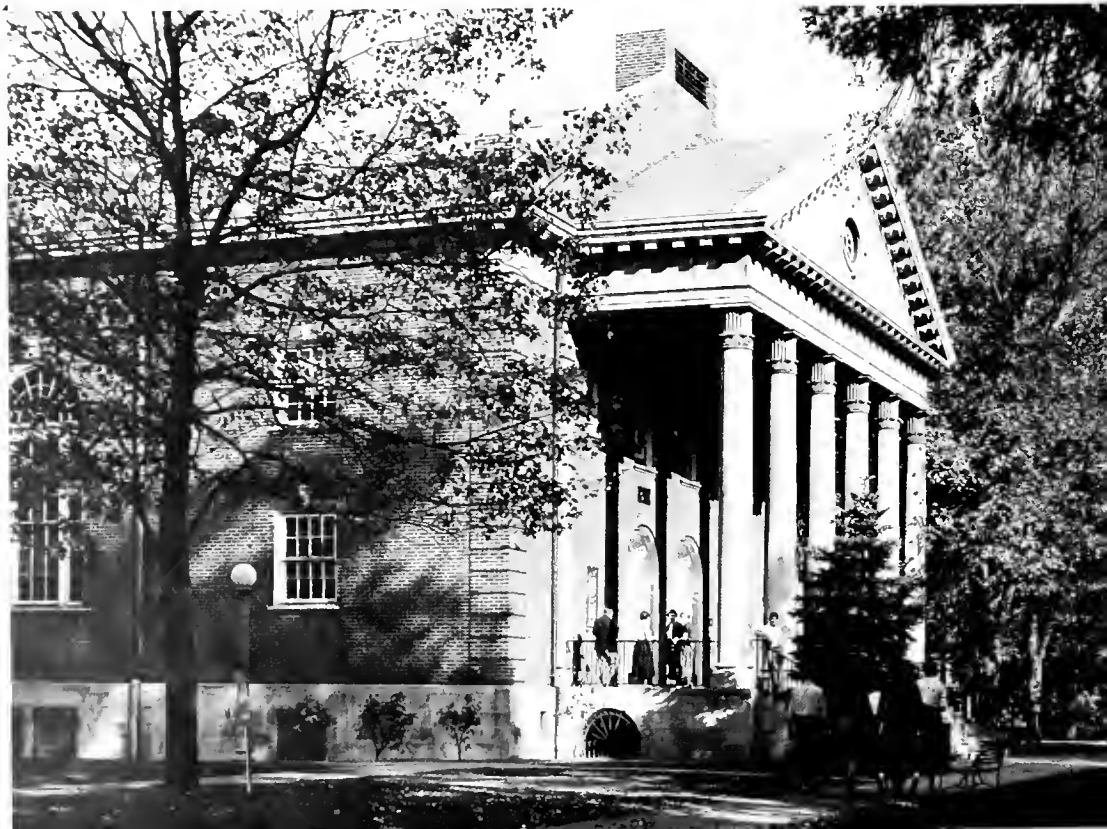

OUR CAMPUS

Indiana's campus is more than a prettily landscaped group of college buildings. It's the whisking flight of a squirrel, the color and gaiety of Swing-Out—these features and everything we've done, even to the sidewalk supervision of the Leonard Hall construction, make the campus ours.

A squirrel's-eye view of John Sutton.

Look at those busy (?) people. ▶

Are you leaving canva early?

So that's where I'm going to teach.

Don't miss it, Jock.

So that is where coal comes from!

STUDENT LIFE

Our comings and goings on campus—coffee at the Dell, School Law test, a trip to the Union, rolls on Sunday night and even lesson plans . . . our life here at I. S. T. C.

President of the College, Dr. Willis E. Pratt.

The phenomenal rise of the teachers colleges in America during the short span of twenty-five years is probably one of the most exciting stories in the history of public education in America. Not only have teachers colleges made a higher education possible to many who could not otherwise afford it but they offer to young men and women today a sound college education. The primary function of the college at Indiana is to prepare every student intellectually, physically, socially, and spiritually for adult life which will bring all of the rewards which come from the traditional liberal education found in most private institutions. The college recognizes that every teacher, whether he prepares himself to teach children in the elementary grades, in the high school or in some special field, needs a profound understanding of life's values which comes only from broad experiences in all areas of learning.

Every student who attends Indiana is challenged intellectually by a competent staff in those understandings and appreciations which are so essential to the educated person. The physical development of students, although recognized by the Greeks as essential, was for many years considered of little importance in institutions of higher education. Fortunately today, the mental and physical health of college students has been given greater emphasis.

These functions of the college are not the unique purposes of a teachers college but are comparable to those offered at any college or university. The college recognizes that every teacher of every child must first of all be an educated person, possessed of all the understandings, skills, appreciations, and attitudes so essential to the cultured individual.

No less important than the intellectual and physical development of a student is his personal and social growth. At Indiana there are on the campus more than eighty student organizations through which student participation provides an opportunity for personal and social development. The primary function of all these organizations is to assure for every student a chance to develop to the best of his ability desirable personal and social traits.

The unique function of the teachers college, however, is the professional preparation of the student for teaching in the public schools of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, acquired through experiences in professional education and in the laboratory school. It is this unique function which Indiana is especially equipped to perform. At Indiana we seek not only to provide a general education for all students but thorough professional education as well, for this is the unique function of the college.

ART

What makes the world go round? Oil painting, water color, pottery, fashion design—art, the elixir of life. The year in the art department began with the freshman Art Club party. Here the new arrivals were given an opportunity to exhibit their talent and skill in anything but art. The clothesline exhibit at Swing-Out was the department's contribution to the campus celebration, but the big event so far as the art students were concerned was the Beaux Arts Ball, held in April. Officers of the club are Joe Calley, President; Jack Ollinger, Vice-President; Bobs Joncula, Secretary; Earl Calderwood, Treasurer.

Miss Blanche T. Waugaman, Dr. Orval Kipp (Director), Miss Dorothy Murdock.

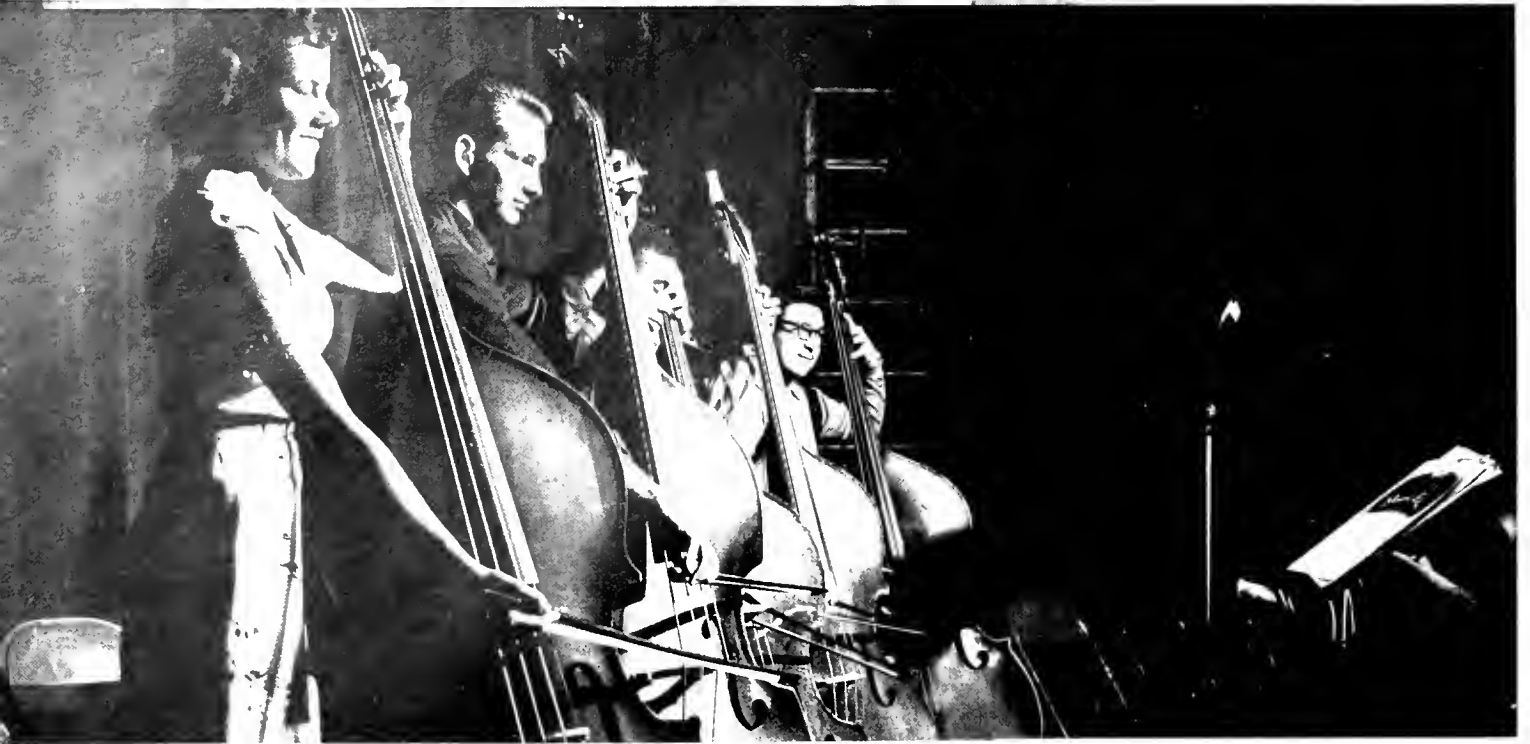

Now let's see you do it.

MUSIC

"Since singing is so good a thing, I wish all men could learn to sing" . . . but the activities of the music department include more than singing. The busy music majors are exposed to all phases of their art, ranging from Bach to Bop. They form a closely-knit "family" and can be depended upon to provide music for practically any campus occasion. All work and no play? Definitely not! Included in the year's schedule are the annual fall outing, The Spring Dinner-Dance, and a wide assortment of teas and recitals. Officers are Orville Conn, President; Dwight Pecsénye, Vice-President; Jean Donatelli, Secretary; Noel Patterson, Treasurer. Clel T. Silvey is the adviser.

Miss Catherine Carl, Dr. Clel T. Silvey (Director), Miss Agnes Bathne, Miss Gladys Dunkleberger, Miss Aagot Borge, Wynn York, Miss Lauro Remsberg, Robert W. Burggraf.

◀ G. G. Hill (Director), and Albert Drumheller.

Life is not all pen and ink and bookkeeping for those in the business department: their social activities include outings in both the fall and spring. At Christmas they play Santa Claus to the children at Willard Home. The Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Merchandise Fair, and the Business Institute all play an important part in promoting unity and providing professional training in the department. Officers are Robert Hasinger, President; John Hicho, Vice-President; Betty Marsden, Corresponding Secretary; Priscilla Clyde, Recording Secretary; Frank Lorychak, Treasurer. Mrs. Elsie Rineer and James K. Stoner are the advisers.

HOME ECONOMICS

Mrs. Elizabeth LaVelle, Dr. Opal Rhodes (Director), Miss Leola Hayes, Miss Ethel Oxley, Miss Rachel Moss.

Primarily concerned with cooking and sewing and all the other myriad skills associated with home economics, this department nevertheless has a lot of fun. In addition to their Big-Little Sister party and the traditional Christmas celebration, the freshmen sponsor a party at Willard Home. Near the end of the year, High School Day gives those high school students interested in home economics an opportunity to obtain information about the curriculum. Officers are Norma Watkins, President; Lorraine Hanna, Vice-President; Sue Marshall, Recording Secretary; Frances Englund, Corresponding Secretary; Nancy Abbey, Treasurer; Evelyn Hollabough, Assistant Treasurer; Betsy Lenox, Parliamentarian. Dr. Opal T. Rhodes is the adviser.

Students in the secondary department display a variety of interest, but this they have in common: they all will be teaching high school subjects. Even though there are such differences among the six departments of secondary education, their club is a useful means for the exchange of ideas. Teaching, after all, is much the same, whether it be the teaching of English or mathematics. In addition to professional and business meetings, the club gives all members a chance to meet socially at the parties and outings held during the year. Officers are Patricia Sweitzer, President; Nancy Tebay, Secretary; Rebecca Hill, Treasurer. The adviser is Dr. Joy Mahachek.

The elementary student might be referred to as a jack-of-all-trades and—here's the catch—master of them all! Music, art, and science, along with the usual reading, writing, and arithmetic, all are included in his curriculum. During his four years of Indiana, the student learns the methods and materials used in teaching young children; then doing his student teaching, he puts this knowledge to practical use. Beginning in the fall of 1953, elementary students began doing nine weeks of student teaching in their junior year and then nine more in their senior year. One of the major contributions of the elementary department to the campus is the work its members do in compiling and selling student directories. Social activities in the department include an outing to greet the freshmen and a goy red and green party, at Christmas. Officers are Suzanne McClements, President; Lois Ward, Vice-President; Ruth Calhoun, Secretary; Patricia Fitzmourice, Treasurer. The adviser is Dr. Irene Russell.

Student teaching is one of the most important aspects of education insofar as the future teacher is concerned. Actually going into a classroom and attempting to explain the principles of multiplication is much different from merely reading about how to tell the fourth-grader that three times three is nine. And while it may seem perfectly easy to gain and hold the attention of twenty-five or thirty children, first hand knowledge teaches that certain techniques must also be developed. Indiana students may do their student teaching right on campus at Keith school, in the town schools, or in participating schools as far away as Clearfield or Tyrone. With so many opportunities available, the prospective teacher may gain experience in all types of teaching situations.

John E. Davis, Director of Student Teaching and Placement, and Earl S. Hoenstine, Assistant Director.

In Memoriam

Galen Besco was a soft spoken gentleman. But like the quiet waters of a woodland stream which conceals its real depth to the casual observer, his modest manner and his genuine dignity concealed the profound understanding which he had of life's real meaning. Only to those who knew him intimately was there revealed the constant desire to improve his work with young men and young women to which he dedicated his whole life.

He had a capacity for creative thinking which challenged not only those who were privileged to study with him but with his colleagues as well. And his tolerance of the ideas of other people influenced many of us to become more tolerant ourselves. Constantly he worked to improve his own good teaching even though many of us could not understand how such improvement could be possible. The selfless manner in which he dedicated himself has been an inspiration and an ideal which few attain.

His loyalty to his colleagues and to his college was surpassed only by his devotion to his family. May their pride in a life so devoted help in this dark hour to assuage the sorrow which is theirs. Only those who knew him most intimately were aware of his almost constant struggle with poor physical health. Never complaining, he sacrificed his own well-being in order that he might make the greatest possible contribution to the life of teaching in which he so profoundly believed. His was, in truth, a life of sacrifice for the good of others which so often goes unheralded.

Willis R. Pratt

His soul was like a great book in which all of us who knew him had read a little. Whether we had turned many pages or few we found wisdom, comfort, and inspiration. We knew we were always welcome to go back and read more, and we half-believed that the book would always be there to give up its treasures. Tomorrow we would read with greater understanding and deeper satisfaction.

Tomorrow, perhaps, we shall.

SENIORS

The senior class came back for their final year at Indiana to a schedule filled with fun and work—and the new, big experience of doing their student teaching. They began their year with all the gaiety and excitement of a "Roman Holiday," the theme of their last prom. Throughout the year, despite their many activities, they continued the popular Coffee Hour with Dr. Pratt and the faculty. In May, Swing-Out was held, with the Senior Queen and her court presiding over the colorful festivities. There was a senior picnic later, too, and then on the twenty-third of May—Baccalaureate, and the following day—Commencement. And so the year ended for the seniors with the rustle of gowns and the crisp feel of diplomas—and perhaps a few nostalgic memories.

JUNIORS

The juniors returned to Indiana with the knowledge that they had successfully passed the bugaboo of sophomore tests and were now at the halfway mark in their college life. For some, this year meant the beginning of student teaching; for others, who would do their teaching in their senior year, it was much the same as any other year. But there was a difference—an increasing interest in professional methods and ideas. Their first major social activity was a trip to Pittsburgh to see a play by Lillian Hellman. There was an outing at the lodge, too, and then in April, their annual prom ended the social activities for the year.

SECONDARY: First Row: Cantie, Nichols, Belles, Notarnicola. Second Row: Kleca, Hurd, Milliron, Zugay, Scanga. Third Row: Lavell, Kline, Cuttler, Balint. Fourth Row: Streams, McGee, Sagramosa, Baughman.

Freshmen Customs was the main topic at the first Sophomore class meeting and with a lot of planning and the participation of the entire class, the freshmen were turned into amusing if unorthodox little Indians. The freshmen even appeared on the sophomore float at Homecoming—in stocks for their misdemeanors! Even though they were working harder than ever with the goal of passing sophomore tests in mind, the class had an unusual amount of fun. The prom in April was the high point of the year and a fitting climax to nine months of laughter and work.

SOPHOMORES

To the freshmen, Indiana was exciting as a crisply bowed birthday gift. They made new friends while standing in line for registration, overcame that twinge of homesickness, and began to feel at home in the dormitory room. After the class prom in March, the freshmen suddenly realized their first year as college students was nearly over.

STUDENT COUNCIL

OFFICERS

President	John Zammikiel
Vice-President	Dorothy Lingenfelter
Corresponding Secretary	Rosemary Conlon
Recording Secretary	Dorothy King
Adviser	Leroy H. Schnell

John Zammikiel, President of the Student Council

The I.S.T.C. Student Council is the voice of the student body, fostering the best interests of the college and the students. It promotes student, faculty, and administrative cooperation on mutual problems. Some of the Council's numerous objectives this year were sponsorship of student elections, elections of publications' stoffs, appointment of student members to administrative and faculty committees, and acceptance of complete responsibility for the production of "Laughter." It shared in the financial support of a foreign student at Indiana for one year and conducted the Campus Carnival to raise money for the Charitable Campus Chest Fund. Good order in the college community was promoted by the Student Council Campus Care and Student Union committees.

WOMEN'S COLLEGIATE ASSOCIATION

First Row: P. James, B. Orcutt, M. Shaub, D. Baker, B. Ondrejack, B. Carsini, J. Wheaton.
Second Row: A. Di Biase, B. Bauch, B. Hostetler, M. Gradler, K. Baier, A. Gent, M. Waite.

The W.C.A. is the governing body of all resident women; it is composed of the president from each hall in John Sutton and Clark and a representative from each of the women's cottages. One of the big events of the year was the Halloween party at which all the girls designing costumes had the chance to give free rein to their imaginations. The result was that John Sutton Lounge was the meeting place of witches and goblins, hillbillies, gypsies, and even Raman goddesses. Officers are Lois Alt, President; Ada DiBiase, Vice-President; Beverly Lamberson, Secretary; Norma Petrone, Treasurer.

NON-RESIDENT WOMEN'S LEAGUE

Our Non-Resident Women's League, composed of women living off campus, has proved itself to be an active organization. Its social gatherings included outings at the lodge, a Christmas party, and an Easter luncheon. Officers are Alma Zacur, President; Virginia DiTullio, Vice-President; Nancy Hamilton, Secretary-Treasurer. Miss Anna Gorman is the adviser.

First Row: A. George, B. Sadler, J. Heilman, J. Simpson, P. Gabany, M. McLaughlin.

JUDICIAL BOARD

The Judicial Board represents all the resident women on campus and sets up governing rules for them. It also sees that these laws are obeyed and determines penalties for misdemeanors. This governing board gives late permissions, the number depending upon the class status of each resident woman. The board adviser is Miss Foust.

SOCIAL LIFE COMMITTEE

Five Student Council members together with Dean Faust and Dean Whitmyre make up the Social Life Committee. The committee's treasury provides newspapers and magazines for the lounges, movies, and orchestras for the dances. This committee also sponsored the Freshman Orientation program. One of their latest projects was to provide a kitchen, complete with utensils, to be used by the student body. The main social events were the teas held jointly with the WCA.

"The bar's head in hand bear I..."

Composed of a member of each department and with A. E. Drumheller as adviser, the Cultural Life Committee scheduled entertainment which proved to be most valuable to the student body. Among those programs presented this year were the Piano Playhouse and the Cincinnati Symphony.

The Sailor's Chantey Scene from Musical Americana.

CULTURAL LIFE COMMITTEE

THE CUE

Familiar to every student at Indiana, the Cue is well-thumbed by freshman and senior alike; small as it is, it contains everything anyone wants to know. The official handbook of the college, the Cue is financed by the Student Cooperative Association and distributed before the opening of the fall session each year as a guide to I.S.T.C. students. In it is published an invaluable collection of practical information: all the regulations governing students and student activities and descriptions of all the college organizations, curricular and extra-curricular. Also included in the booklet is a calendar of events for the coming year. Patricia Popsion is the editor. This year, after the sudden death of Dr. Galen Besco who had served as adviser for several years, Dr. Rider assumed this position. Dr. Kipp acts as adviser to the art members of the staff.

Indiana's PENN upholds the tradition of an uncensored college newspaper—an independent student voice serving both students and faculty and working for the good of I.S.T.C. Fulfilling its purpose of providing news, features, and sports for the reader, the PENN provides valuable experience for those students on the staff. With full authority resting upon them, they have developed journalistic ability, integrity, and a sense of responsibility.

The inevitable last minute rush to meet the deadline.

All the fun you've had at Indiana this year—the glee club recital, the close game won, the long walk to Elkins, the little things you and your friends laughed over—all are here in your yearbook. If in time you should forget, leaf through The Oak, look at the pictures, re-read the articles, and remember.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

For their first good deed of the year, the members of the YWCA explained the wonders of Indiana and college life to a group of mystified little Alices—this at the Big 'n Little Sister party which used Alice in Wonderland as its theme. The Y was busy during the entire year with Bible Study groups, morning watches, teas, and work sessions on the Chevy Chase project. Officers are Lois Ward, President; Marian Harbison, Vice-President; Beverly Lomberson, Secretary; Shirley Hoenstine, Treasurer; Mory Lou Shaffer, Assistant Treasurer. Dr. Mary G. Swarts and Mrs. Stanley Lore are the advisers.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Growth in good fellowship and religious awareness on campus is the ideal of the YMCA. This year was filled with successful programs, among them the annual spring outing at the lodge. Perhaps the highlight of the year's activities was the booth at the Campus Carnival, sponsored jointly with the YWCA. Officers are Dan Sagramoso, President; Jack Denny, Vice-President; Jack Snyder, Secretary; Dick Barkley, Treasurer. Dr. Stanley Lore is the adviser.

Fun after a "Y" meeting.

RELIGIOUS LIFE COMMITTEE

First Row: Miss Ober, Mrs. Lare, B. Edmiston, D. Roberts.
Second Row: B. Ward, C. Reith, J. Pressau, E. Gall, E. Smith.

The Religious Life Committee, composed of both faculty and student representatives, plans and sponsors all religious programs held on the campus, including the monthly vesper services. In November, they presented a foreign exchange student as a guest speaker at an all-school tea and continued with plans for the presentation of The Messiah at a special Christmas vesper service. In February, Spiritual Enrichment Week began, including among other activities, talks given by prominent religious leaders. All these programs have become extremely popular and the Committee has come to be one of the most important groups on the campus. Chairmen of the Committee are Dr. John Sahli and Beverly Ward.

The Indiana Campus Christian Fellowship, a member of the national organization, celebrated the completion of its fourth year on campus by working harder than ever. The main activities were the campus conference and the annual Retreat, but there were also a number of parties during the year. Officers are Jack Pressau, President; Beverly Ward, Vice-President; William Hall, Secretary; Dennis Meyers, Treasurer. Miss Hazel Ober is the adviser.

First Row: B. Ward, R. Marshall, S. Barlow, B. Edmiston, D. Lykens, R. Lynch, R. Price. Second Row: Miss Ober, W. Hall, J. Pressau, D. Myers, F. Dallenbach.

CAMPUS CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

CANTERBURY CLUB

R. Ingersoll, A. Lebeddo, C. Dickson,
N. Sweely, J. Smart.

The Canterbury Club selected as its discussion topic for the year "A History of the Church from the Third Century." In addition to monthly discussions on this topic, the group sponsored several projects. The Club also had complete charge of two Morning Prayer Services. Monthly Corporate Communion and breakfast made up the core of the spiritual program. Holy Days were also observed at 8:00 A. M. Holy Communion. Religious, service, and recreational activities were combined into a meaningful and successful year. After the retirement of Colonel Thornber in October, Mr. Wynn York served as adviser to the group.

Members of the Erskine Club, sponsored by the United Presbyterian Church, hit the dusty trail for the old west in their first meeting of the year, a ranch party in September. With the regular Sunday morning discussion programs and a full schedule of parties and fun, the local church helped its student members to feel at home in Indiana. Officers are Betty Edmiston, President; Blair Taylor, Vice-President; Janet Simpson, Secretary-Treasurer. The adviser is Mr. James Green.

First Row: H. Homill, M. Morth, A. Fozl, B. Edmiston, M. Hendricks, C. Cloypool. Second Row: J. Winslow, R. Murray, D. Taylor, B. Taylor, P. Schussler, E. Anderson.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

First Row: J. Sorber, N. Wagner, F. Shaffer, L. Kelly, M. McDowell, J. Bell. Second Row: C. Reith, N. Crawford, R. Price, N. Zebroskey, M. May, J. Miller, P. Hassel, N. Penney, J. Anderson. Third Row: S. Leibfreid, N. Paige, D. Leslie, E. Hiller, M. Montag, J. Ahlquist, N. Kuhns, N. Potts, P. Shuster, D. Lykens, B. Koch, D. Sleigh, S. Lundin, B. Holland, G. Broeseker. Fourth Row: L. Broeseker, D. Troyan, C. Pote, A. Durst, D. Wilkinson, D. McGarvey, J. Tate, J. Walker, B. Korper, N. Shepherd.

For their first meeting of the year, the members of L.S.A. turned back the calendar to the 1890's for a party in the spirit of the "good old days." This was only the beginning though; throughout the rest of the year, they enjoyed a number of outings and parties. Their program also included Sunday morning religious services, supper meetings twice a month, and fellowship parties once a month. The organization sent representatives to three regional Lutheran Student Association Conferences and to Camp Lutherlyn. Officers are Shirley Miller, President; David Wilkinson, Vice-President; Gwennie Mock, Secretary; Jacqueline Sorber, Treasurer. Elsie G. Rineer and Aagot Borge are the advisers.

The Methodist College Club began its year with a Get-Together in September. Each Sunday throughout the year supper discussion meetings were held, the main theme being, "Jesus Calls Us." Perhaps the biggest event was the Christmas Party at which all the members baked and packed boxes of cookies and decorated a tree. Another highlight of the year was the Easter morning breakfast. Officers are Enid Smith, President; Patt Sickelsmith, Vice-President; Joanne Agnew, Secretary; Clarence Robinson, Treasurer. Sponsors are Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Lore.

The Newmanites were industrious this year. They held parties at the Catholic Youth Center, went caroling at Christmas, and hayriding in the fall. More serious activities included Communion Breakfasts, lectures, films, discussions, and a weekly class in Christian ethics. Officers are Dan McCarthy, President; Ada DiBiase, Vice-President; Donna Munda, Corresponding Secretary; Pat Rossi, Recording Secretary. Miss Margaret Stewart is the adviser.

What goes on every Sunday evening at 6:30? Well, for one thing, the members of the Presbyterian College Club hold their weekly meeting. This year they chose "Christianity on the College Campus" as their topic for discussion, supplementing their own ideas with those presented by guest speakers. Officers are Pat Gold, President; Mary Alice Stitt, Vice-President; Mary Gary, Secretary; Larry Marraccini, Treasurer. Dr. Willis Bell is the faculty adviser.

First Row: D. Schutzler, M. Nichols, L. Marraccini, M. Clawson, P. Gold, M. Gary, S. Barlow, J. McManagle. Second Row: R. Weaver, L. Ward, K. Neese, B. Curry, B. Pearce, P. Shaemaker, B. Bouch, M. Henry.

McGarvey, J. Lehew, J. Tallone, L. Kalp, F. Streams.

The International Relations Club is open to all students who are interested in world affairs. Lectures, forums, debates, news summaries, movies, and conferences are all utilized to give the members a clearer picture of some of the problems which face us today. Middle Atlantic States Model United Nations Assembly, Middle States Regional Conference of the Carnegie Foundation for Universal Peace, and Pennsylvania State International Relations Club Conference are but a few of the diversified program activities in which the student is encouraged to participate. Officers are June Rowbottom, President; Dean McGarvey, Vice-President; Gail Clementson, Secretary; Don Cuttler, Treasurer. Sponsors are Dr. Ralph Cordier and Miss Florence Wallace.

Each year, as a social service project, the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsors the Christmas party for the children at Willard Home just outside Indiana. Members of J.C.C., acting as guardians at this party, present gifts, candy, and cookies to each child. Fall and spring outings are social functions. Bob Hasinger is the President.

First Row: A. Fazi, M. Bell, M. Falger, F. Adornato, E. Smith, P. Clyde, M. Chapmon, C. McCollough, R. Williams, J. Sandel, R. Mouck, M. Zimmerman, E. Miller. Second Row: S. Hammers, N. JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

INTER-COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE ON GOVERNMENT

That must have been a good one.

The I.C.G. has for its essential purpose the study of national and state problems of government; some attention is also given to Robert's Rules of Order. As their annual project, the Inter-Collegiate Conference on Government chose an aspect of government on which to make a more detailed study. At the convention in Harrisburg this year, the conference set up a model state legislature to carry out procedures and problems similar to those of the state legislature. Officers are Dwight Glenn, President; James Gould, Vice-President; Sally Theemler, Secretary-Treasurer. C. M. Johnson is the adviser.

This year the Science Club featured movies, speakers, and discussions. On their field trips, members visited the U. S. Steel foundry and the McGill Motor Company. Their social life included a wiener roast, a Christmas party, the Campus Carnival, and a party in May. The Science Club also participated in the High School Science Fair in April. Officers are Donald Cuttler, President; June Belles, Vice-President; Maryann Labuda, Secretary; Larry Isaac, Treasurer. Dr. Willis H. Bell is the adviser.

The English Speech Club is composed of students from both the English and speech departments. During the year, the members held discussions, outings at the lodge, and professional meetings. Dr. Rhodes R. Stabley is the adviser.

All the world is a stage to our talented theatrical group, the Masquers. Whether it's a Shakespearean "To be or not to be" or a modern "who dunit," the Masquers are ever ready to deliver four star performances. Officers are Nancy Tredick Vorlage, President, Nick Cook; Secretary-Treasurer. Robert W. Ensley is the director and adviser.

MASQUERS

MARCHING BAND

The I.S.T.C. MOCCASIN BAND with their maroon and gray uniforms is a familiar sight at all of our football games. It is then that they display the technique of precision timing which is present in all their routines. In addition to providing the half-time entertainment at both home and away games, the band participated in the home-coming parade and in the local Halloween and Armistice Day parades. The sixty piece unit is under the direction of Mr. C. David McNaughton who is assisted by Orville Conn and Robert Megill. Christie Sell is the drum major. Officers are Noel Potterson, President; Robert Szobo, Vice-President; Joan Frey, Secretary; Stanley Servinsky, Manager.

CONCERT BAND

Under the direction of Mr. C. David McNaughton, the I.S.T.C. Symphonic Band with its seventy members specializes in performing band music of a serious and worthwhile nature. This year they presented several programs: a convocation in January, a formal evening concert in March, and a concert presented in a nearby high school. As their final program, the band presented a Music Appreciation Hour in May as part of Music Week. Officers are Noel Patterson, President; Robert Szobo, Vice-President; Joan Frey, Secretary; Stanley Servinsky, Manager.

This organization has as its aim the performance of the higher forms of choral music—ancient and modern, sacred and secular—in as professional a manner as possible. Its members include both music majors and students from other departments. This year the choir's major undertaking was the presentation of the Messiah at Christmas time in cooperation with the Mixed Chorus and the College String Orchestra. In March, the organization presented its annual concert at Carnegie Hall in Pittsburgh, and in April, it conducted its annual tour of neighboring cities. Other events of the year included a vesper service, a convocation, a radio broadcast, and a public concert. As its concluding project, the choir provided the music for the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises in May. Mr. Wynn York is the conductor.

COLLEGE CHOIR

WOMEN'S CHORUS

There's music in the air—yes, music by the Women's Chorus, a group of sixty-two girls from all departments with Miss Gladys Dunkleberger, the directress. On December 15, the Chorus and the Band shared honors at a convocation concert and on January 10, the girls sang at a vesper service. As the climax of their year's activities, the Women's Chorus gave their evening concert on March 21; a Sunday evening was chosen so that both parents and students could attend. Officers are Betty Seaman, President; Donna Scott, Secretary; Caral Weiers and Nancy Tompkins, Librarians; Donna Nagey and Nancy Ja Grumling, Accompanists; Eleanor Zimolzak, Advertising Manager.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Under the direction of Mr. Charles A. Davis, the ninety-five members of the Men's Glee Club have enjoyed a full and active year. Their first program was presented as a welcome to all home-coming alumni. They also provided the appropriate music for two Sunday evening college vesper services and presented two convocations to the student body. On the evening of February 24, they presented their fifth annual concert for the general public. The club's spirited rendition of the English Boar's Head Carol at the annual Christmas Dance is a campus tradition which had its beginning in 1930 when the men were under the direction of Miss Agot Borge. However the real highlight of the year came on December 4, when the club accepted the invitation to sing at the convention of the Pennsylvania Music Educators' Association in Harrisburg. Officers are LaRue Epler, President; Robert McGinnis, Secretary.

MIXED CHORUS

The College Mixed Choir, under the direction of Mr. Wynn York, presented a number of programs throughout the year. The climax of their performances was the assistance given the choir in presenting the Messiah at Christmas time.

MELLOWMEN

The hardworking Mellowmen are under the direction of Mr. Charles A. Davis assisted by Sal Signorino. This year the swing orchestra presented a convocation in October and did the pit work in both "It's Laughter We're After" in November and Swing-Out in May. In addition to this campus work, they also conducted a tour of nearby high schools.

COLLEGE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The music played by the College Symphony is of a wide variety, ranging from the classics to the moderns. Directed by Mr. Lawrence C. Stitt, the organization is open to students from the various departments and to members of the faculty. The student body has the opportunity to hear the College Symphony in two convocations this year. The first was a pre-Thanksgiving convocation which was presented jointly with the Men's Glee Club. The second program was given in the spring. A radio program was also broadcast by the group. During the second semester, several representatives were sent to the Pennsylvania Inter-Collegiate Orchestra Festival.

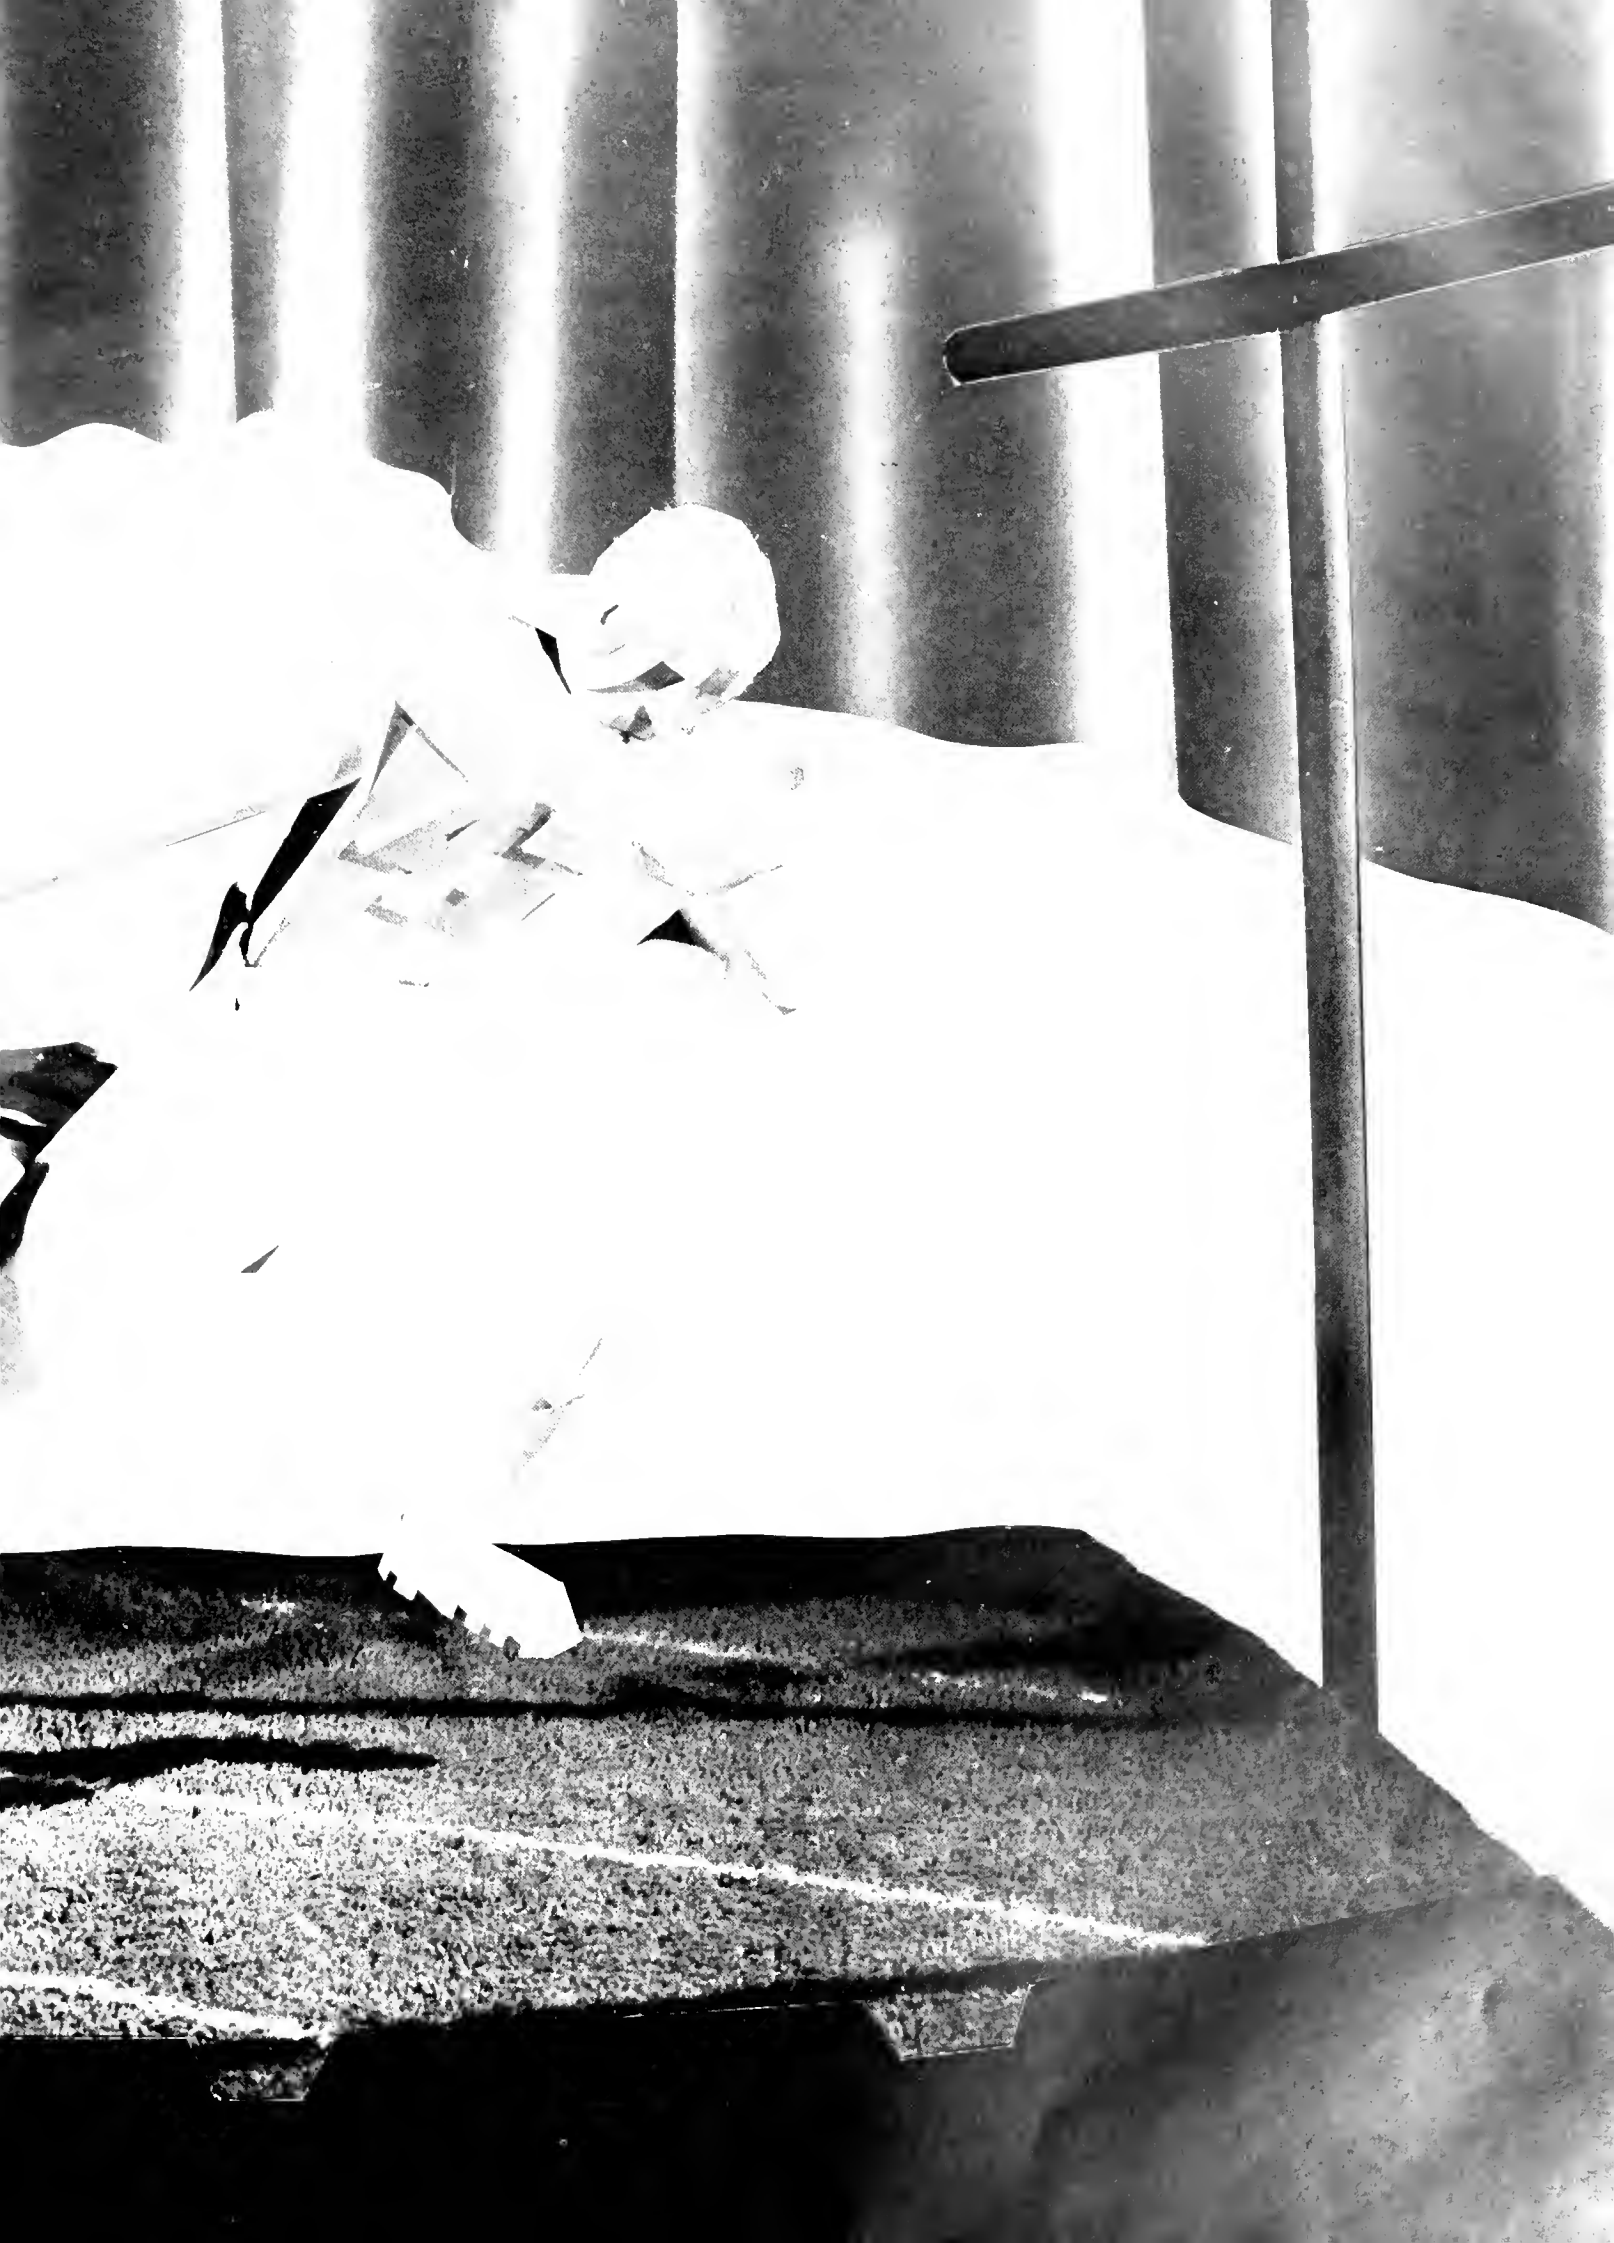

STRING ORCHESTRA

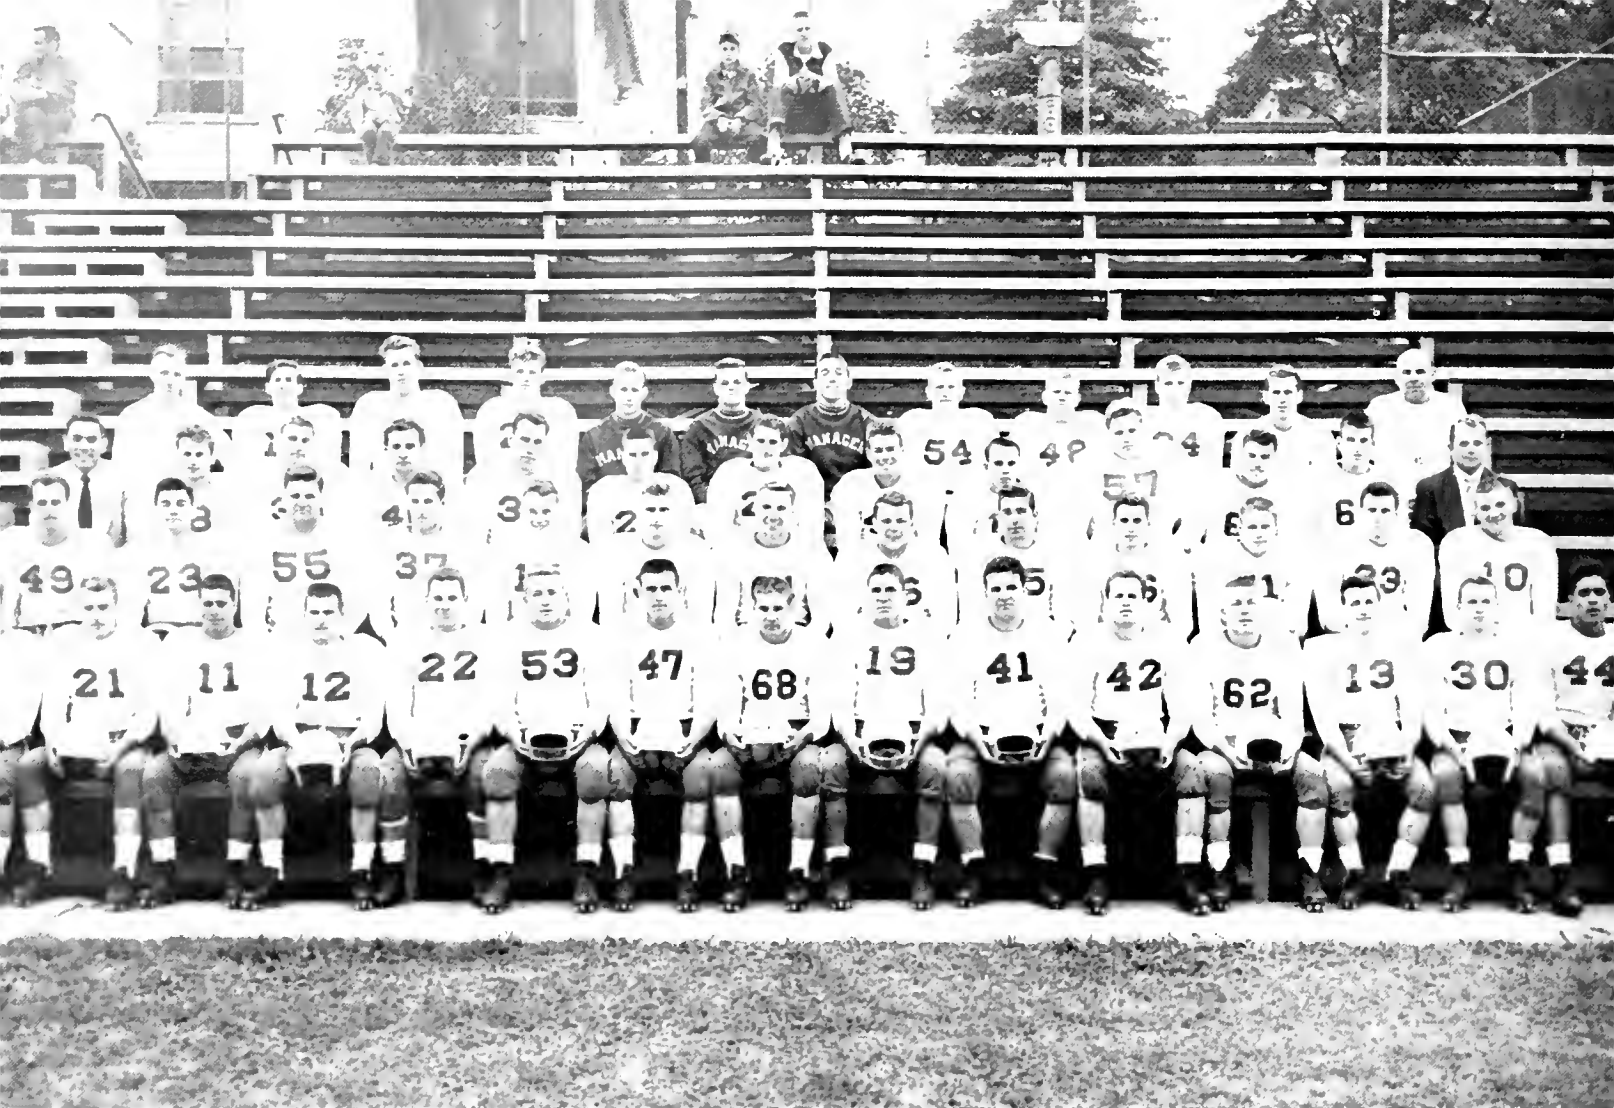

The College String Orchestra provides experience in playing compositions written for this type of ensemble. The selections of music are taken from both the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and the contemporary era. In addition to appearing at a convocation program and at a college vesper service, the group presented a varied program in several nearby high schools. The highlight of the year came during the Christmas season, however, when the organization participated in the college production of the Messiah. There are approximately twenty-five members in the String Orchestra and they are under the direction of Mr. Jerome Landsman.

FOOTBALL

Indiana's big Indians completed their third year in an organized grid conference with a season record of 4-4 and placed seventh in conference standings. The 1953 season got under way with the Indians copping a hard-fought 7-0 win over the Geneva Covies on a rain-laden Memorial Field. Then after dropping a close decision, 14-6, to a surprisingly strong Thiel squad, the big Redmen bounced back to defeat the California Vulcans in a high-scoring contest 28-20. The game, played before a large Indiana homecoming crowd, was a tight struggle all the way, being clinched in the final period when Roger Speidel scored from 49 yards out. Still on the march following their homecoming win, the Indians traveled to Edinboro where they defeated a very strang Raider team 14-7. A streak of bad luck then hit the Indians as they lost two consecutive contests to Slippery Rack and Clarion, 14-0 and 41-13 respectively. Entering their final home appearance of the season as underdogs, the Redmen pulled their biggest upset of the season by romping over a strong Lock Haven eleven 25-0. In their final contest, played at Saint Francis in a mild snow storm, the Indians dropped a close one, 7-0, following a first period fumble. Raymie Malcolm copped scoring honors for the season, scoring 5 touchdowns for a total of 30 points. He was followed by Jack Trettle and Roger Speidel who had 12 points apiece. Although the Indians had only a mediocre record this season, they lose only two seniors through graduation, Co-captains Roger Speidel, quarterback, and Bob Green, guard, and should set a much better mark next fall.

Jack Crossan, sophomore guard from Vandergrift, set a new school record for the most points scored in one game when he scored 40 points in the game with Edinboro. The previous record of 36 points was also set by him in 1952. Crossan, who makes 60 per cent of his shots, is averaging 26.3 points per game. He set a school record for the most points scored in one season with 476 points. The previous record was set by Chet Gurski with 306 points. At present he is the number one man in the West Penn Little Eleven.

BASKETBALL

Coach Peck McKnight started a rebuilding process this season as only four lettermen returned from the 1952-53 campaign. Using these lettermen as a starting point, Coach McKnight remolded the team with freshmen and newcomers. The rejuvenated team has thus far turned in a respectable record of 13 wins and 6 losses. Its record in state teachers college competition is 7 wins and 3 losses—holding wins over Edinboro, Lock Haven, Clarion, Slippery Rock and California. Don 'Bones' Cavalero, the big defensive gun for the Indians, has done an excellent job of controlling some of the highest scorers in the state. Fine jobs have also been done by Harry Danielson, the team captain and Regis Laughlin and Mike Farah, Freshman stars.

Members of the swimming team were Jahn Lassinger, Fred Bass, Larry Marraccini, Nick Knezavich, Charles Rice, Scott Stauffer, Robert Gauntner, Sam Romesberg, and Bill Dean.

On your mark. Get set. Go!!!

SWIMMING

Even with five returning lettermen, Coach George Miller's swimmers could not develop a winning combination, as they dropped 6 of their 7 meets this past season. In their opening encounter, the mermen recorded the only win of the season by swamping Kiski 54 to 21. John Lassinger, sophomore backstroke stylist, turned in an excellent record for the season by posting 6 firsts and 1 second in 7 meets. Fred Bass was the outstanding diver for the mermen, taking 4 firsts and 3 seconds. Coach Miller has a much brighter outlook for the future however, as he will have his entire team returning next year.

Bass cuts the water cleanly.

BASEBALL

Losing only one game in teachers college competition and placing second in conference standings, Coach Sam Smith's diamond squad posted a respectable record of 5 wins and 4 losses for the 1953 season. Following a thorough 36 to 6 trouncing by Pitt in the diamond opener, the Indians bounced back to play excellent ball and cop a 7 to 3 victory over the St. Francis "Frankies." Then, traveling to Shippensburg, the big Redmen split a doubleheader, winning the second game 5-3, after dropping the opener 2-1. Still on the move, the Indians ran their win streak to 3 straight as they trounced Juniata and Clarion, 6-2 and 7-3 respectively. The Redmen then split a hard-fought doubleheader 2-3 and 5-4, when they played host to Geneva at Memorial Field during Swing-Out weekend. Juniata, seeking revenge for their previous loss, trounced the Indians 9-1 in the season's final. George Mohr, a three-year veteran, was the workhorse for Coach Smith's pitching staff as he appeared in 8 of 9 games and split even in 6 decisions. Ken Stewart, freshman centerfielder, lead the batting staff with 12 hits out of 37 times at bat, giving him an average of .324 for the season. Completing their final season at I.S.T.C. are: George Mohr, Glenn Sanner, Jay Smith, Ron Russell, Bill Stutz, Whitey Kapsa, and Bill Sabota.

Several of the players lost by graduation were Bill Stutz, Whitey Kapsa, Bill Sobota, and George Mohr.

With Uncle Sam dipping in the talent of the grapplers and taking two lettermen, Eddie Kinkead and Sam McClemons, Coach Lew Shaffer used only unlettered performers of last year and new faces to post a record of 5 wins and 6 losses for the 1953-54 season. This record included practice wins over Kiski twice and Carnegie Tech. The other two wins were over Edinboro. John Croft, a transfer student from Penn State, turned in a very impressive season in the 130 pound class, recording 7 wins, 1 loss, and 1 draw. Freshman Larry Cramer, who is district 10 champion from Greenville, also posted an impressive record of 5 wins, 2 losses, and 2 draws. Prospects for next season look very bright as Coach Shaffer will lose no one through graduation and will have 6 lettermen returning.

Leo Gispanski hits a potential hole-in-one.

GOLF

Coach George Miller's golfers, who posted the best record of any of the school's athletic teams last year, recorded 6 wins and 2 losses to give them the best season ever posted by an I.S.T.C. golf team. With five returning lettermen, the Millermen displayed much skill and experience in defeating Kiski, 10-5; Clorion, 7-5; Waynesburg, 13-2; St. Francis, 11½-6½; Duquesne, 9½-8½; and Kiski, 13½-4½. They lost only to St. Francis, 10½-7½; and Slippery Rock, 12½-5½. The highlight of the season was the Indians' close, one-point win over Duquesne. This was the first victory that an Indiana golf team ever scored over the "Dukes." Jim Principe was the number one man for Coach Miller, but was closely followed by Walt Wiggins, Leo Gispanski, Jerry Goss, Bill Kopchick, and Bernard Pella. The linksmen will lose their number 1 and number 3 man when Jim Principe and Jerry Goss receive their sheepskins this spring.

SOCCER

Coach Trevor Hodley's racquet men, who were hampered by poor facilities and bad weather conditions, closed the 1953 season with 2 wins and 7 losses. Although five lettermen returned, the underclass-dominated netmen failed to organize a winning combination. Although Ed Mayer and John Cugini will be lost through graduation, Joe DeBlase and Gene Majda will be expected to fill their positions in the coming season.

The soccer team is coached by Mr. Lewis Shaffer. The senior members of the 1953-54 soccer team were Alan Cover, Nick Grigas, and Bill Stutz.

INTRAMURALS

Intramural Touch Football for the fall of 1953 was brought to a close with Sigma Phi Epsilon copping their second straight title by recording 6 wins and 1 loss. Len Holliday of the Sig Tau A's captured individual scoring honors with a season's total of 36 points. Basketball, the most popular intramural sport at I.S.T.C., enjoyed a very thrilling season with many topnotch teams participating in three separate leagues. Sigma Phi Epsilon, defending champions this season, again posted a strong court team and led their respective league. The coming of spring ushered in men's softball which again enjoyed a very prosperous and exciting season. Turning the spotlight to women's sports, badminton, volley ball, tennis, and bowling were offered to keep the girls busy. The biggest attraction was Volley Ball, in which the Tri Sig's defeated the Thetas to take the championship title.

Don't miss it.

MEN'S VARSITY "I"

The aims of the Varsity "I" are to maintain a high degree of good sportsmanship among all athletes and to provide competent teams to represent the college in inter-collegiate competition. Membership requires that an individual win a letter in one of the major sports of the college. The group has two banquets, one following football season and one in the spring for all sports. The Varsity "I" takes moving pictures of all home games and takes care of the concession stand.

What's in the bulletin today?

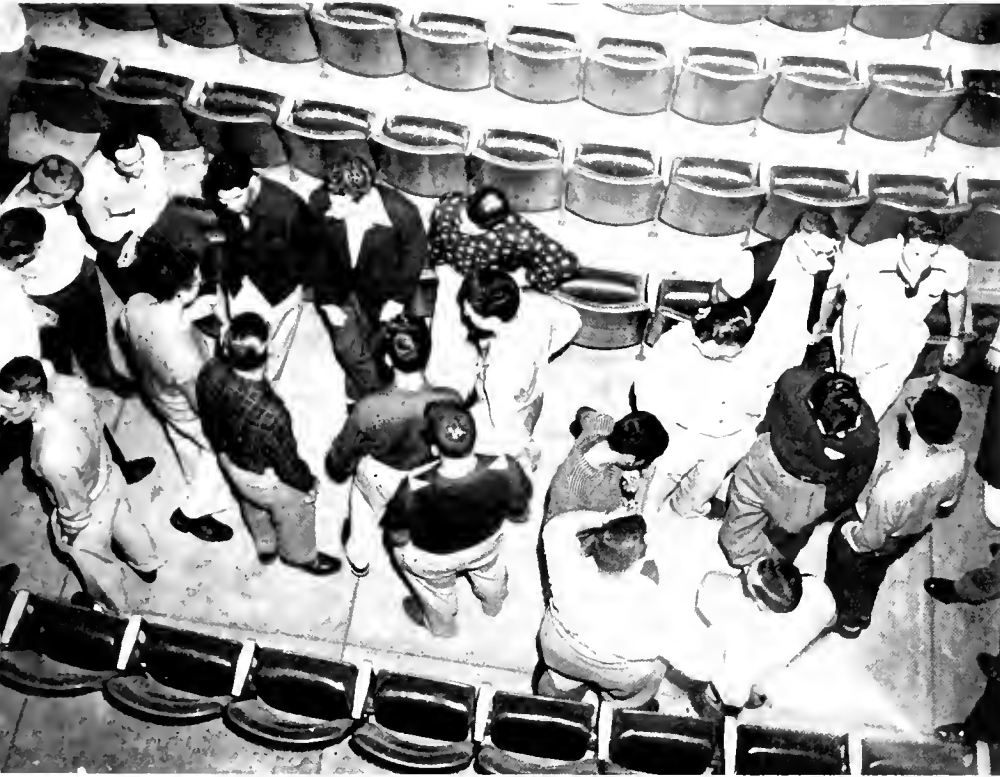

Here are some of the highlights of your college life—everything from the laughter of little Indians during freshmen customs to the solemn procession of graduation. Remember standing in slow-moving lines for registration and scheduling, filling out cards, and purchasing books? Soon there were organization meetings to attend; and for the upperclassmen, the Thursday night ritual of sororities and fraternities. Here, too, began Vespers, hayrides, and Saturday campus movies.

The Independent Women's Laughter skit.

Is this a regular rehearsal, Mr. D.?

HIGHLIGHTS

The highlight of football season was the Homecoming weekend with all the excitement of parades and floats, freshmen customs and the victory over California's football team. The Tri Sig's won first prize for their float, certainly a highlight in their year.

The "Six Squaws" serenade at the Christmas Dance.

You certainly need a sky hook, John.

The Tri Sigs first-prize winning Homecoming float.

"Oh, the weather outside is frightful" . . . but beautiful.

Piano Play House was the first Cultural Life program; this was followed later in the year by the Masquers' presentation of "The Beaux Stratagem." The first big affair of the social season was the Inter-Frat dance. "It's Laughter We're After" saw three fraternities, Phi Alpha Zeta, Delta Sigma Phi, and Delta Gamma Tau, carry off the awards.

Returning from the turkey and pumpkin pie of Thanksgiving vacation, the students began preparations for Christmas. Now the spotlight was focused on the numerous parties soon in full swing. But regardless of these, here the highlight was the formal Christmas dinner and dance, with the accompanying Boar's Head ceremony. With 1954, came the height of basketball season and the last minute cramming for semester exams.

I play clarinet, ask me.

Squaws have heap big trouble.

The winners of the annual WCA Christmas door decorating contest.

Helen Young rules as queen at the Home Ec. "Hearts Go Merry" Ball.

Colonel Santelmann, Director of the United States Marine Band.

D's boys give their all at the annual singing of the Boar's Head Carol.

The second semester began with the Barter Theater production of Shakespeare's "Two Gentlemen of Verona." Then came February and Spiritual Enrichment Week, during which the campus buzzed with discussion groups, special speakers, and "bull sessions." Following these four days, hearts went merry for the Hearts Go Merry Ball, the annual formal sponsored by the girls in the Home Ec department. As the Cultural Life speaker for February, the college presented Dr. Andrew Cordier, executive assistant to Dag Hammarskjold, United Nations secretary general. Crowded in among these highlights were rush parties, pledge parties, and initiations, all contributing their share of fun and excitement. The Cincinnati Symphony concert, the March Cultural Life program was the outstanding event on Indiana's campus for the month. But March was crowded with other activities too—the freshmen forgot all their cares and danced merrily and long at their prom. The big sorority event, the Panhellenic Dance, finally became a reality.

Miss Faust and Impy.

Members of the Modern Dance Club present the church scene from "So Long, It's Been Good to Know You."

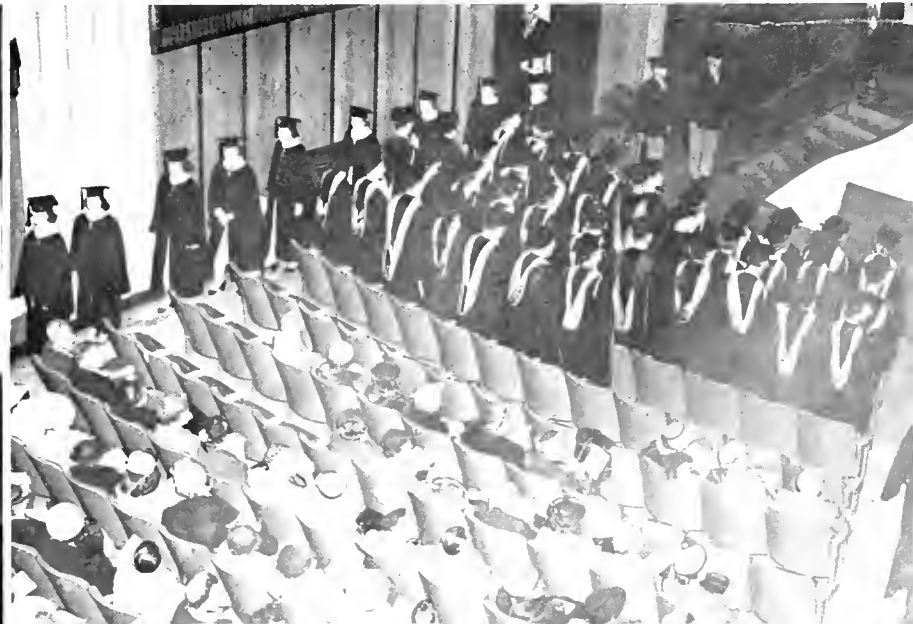

Events for April began with the art students' Beaux Arts Ball and a Cultural Life program at which Dr. Davila of Chile presented an interesting lecture. The highlight so far as the juniors were concerned was, of course, their class prom. Easter vacation was an important part of April, too; students left for home talking excitedly of new spring ties and bonnets. After vacation, it was the sophomores' turn to dance the night away at their prom. Then came the really big weekend for the entire college—Swing-Out, with the crowning of the queen, the Art Club clothesline exhibit, and the "Good News" production, presented by Mr. Ensley and Mr. Davis, starring LaRue Epler and Jean Federici. Music Week was followed by another big, but not so eagerly awaited event—semester finals. For the seniors, though, the highlight of their four years of college was just around the corner—Baccalaureate and Commencement, with all the ceremony of long robes and mortarboards, crisp diplomas and speeches. And then, the college year was over.

This year's Swing-Out program presents LaRue Epler, Jean Federici, Marian McCurdy, and John Petchar in "Good News."

ALPHA OMEGA GAMMA

This year Alpha Omega Gamma undertook to stock the library with many new books pertaining to geography. Included in their agenda was a trip to the Buhl Planetarium and participation in the National Council for Geography Teachers. To stimulate interest, professional speakers were engaged for many of the meetings during the year. The chief project consisted in sending a number of magazines abroad to students in other countries.

Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatic fraternity, provides an honor society for those doing a high standard of work in dramatics. Because play production is a highly technical activity, this fraternity is an attempt to recognize proficiency in students who have been able to excel in more than one division. Membership is gained by a point system, and points must be earned from all phases of dramatics, both on-stage acting and the behind-the-scenes work.

DELTA OMICRON

The Delta Sigma Chapter of Delta Omicron is I.S.T.C.'s professional music fraternity for women. Its purpose is to create and foster fellowship among musicians during their student days and to stimulate high individual achievement. Although the sorority is but a year old, it has already established itself quite firmly on this campus. The monthly meetings have been supplemented by several varied events: a recital in October, a radio program presented in May during Music Week, and several out of town performances. The members also served as ushers for the various musical programs presented here throughout the year. Membership is open to second semester sophomores or better.

PHI MU ALPHA

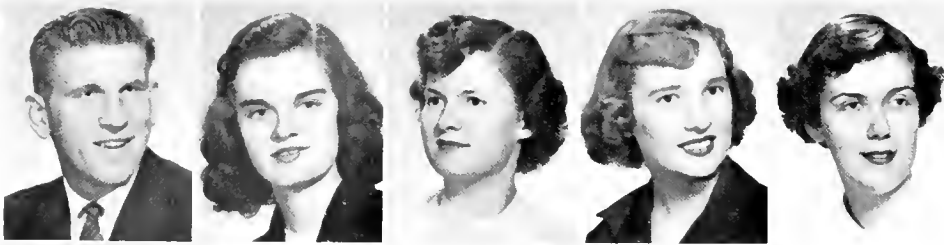

On May 21, 1953, the Zeta Tau Chapter of the Phi Mu Alpha was installed on this campus by a group of fraternity members from the Carnegie Institute of Technology. Presiding over the initiation was Dr. Alan Britton, then Province Governor. Honoring Founder's Day on October 6th, the fraternity held a smoker in Dr. Silvey's home where plans were made for the recital which they presented on October 22. The recital, centering on American music, included piano and vocal solos, a string quartet and trio, a men's chorus, and a brass sextet. Men who are eligible for membership must have a high scholastic standing as well as a high musical average. This summer, several representatives from I.S.T.C. will attend the national convention in Cincinnati, Ohio. The organization claims over 18,000 alumni throughout the country.

PI OMEGA PI

Pi Omega Pi is an honorary business fraternity open to eligible juniors and seniors. This year Kappa Chapter has attempted to develop a new interest in the business department by undertaking a revival of several past projects. Business meetings were held each month and we had our annual joint banquet with Gamma Rho Tau this spring.

SIGMA ALPHA ETA

The first event of the Sigma Alpha Eta year was the initiation of key-members into the fraternity on October 13. In the latter part of October, members attended the undergraduate Speech and Hearing Conference held at Penn State. The climax of the year was the annual May banquet, at which the members heard a talk on Children's Speech and Language Norms.

The first days of the semester found the members of Alpha Sigma Alpha making their way out to the lodge for an informal get-together. On October 24, several members went to Bucknell University to participate in the installation of a new chapter on that campus. The Alpha Sigs were kept busy the rest of the year with a Founder's Day luncheon held at the Rustic Lodge, a Strawberry Festival, and the Senior Farewell party.

ALPHA SIGMA TAU

For their Homecoming float, Alpha Sigma Tau went way back to "Grandpa's 1803"; following the parade, the alumni were entertained at a tea. A number of parties were held during the year, but the big event was the formal rush party at which the prospective members were introduced to the sorority. As their project for the year, the girls sent classroom supplies to Pine Mountain School in Kentucky.

Beta Sigma Omicron began their year by going back to the covered-wagon days with the entry of their float, "Indiana or Bust," in the Homecoming parade. They also participated in Laughter and joined in the fun of the Campus Carnival crowds. To introduce their prospective pledges, the sorority sponsored the "Coronation of the Pink Lady" for their formal rush party. A senior farewell party was the last social function of the year. The chief Beta Sig service project was the support given to the Pink Mountain Settlement School in Kentucky.

Delta Sigma Epsilon started off their year of fun with a prize-winning Homecoming float. Other events were their fall party at the lodge, the Laughter skit, and their Christmas party. Later on, all the members were in "Heaven" at their formal rush party. Service projects for the year included sending contributions to their adapted patient at Carville, Louisiana Hospital and packages to a needy family. Among other highlights on the year's calendar were the Swing-Out tea and, last but not least, the senior farewell party.

Phi Mu began their year with a reunion at the lodge and the discussion of plans for their entry in the Homecoming parade—the Clymer Streetcar. Later in the fall, there was the booth at the Campus Carnival and the laughter skit to be planned for, laughed over, and remembered. No sooner was their Christmas party over than the excitement of the rush party was upon them; at the latter, the prospective sorority members were introduced to the group. The final party of the year was held in the spring in honor of the seniors in the sorority. In addition to their social activities, Phi Mu is active in community service; the toy cart and Pantry Week at the Indiana Hospital, aid given to the T.B. Society, these are only a few of their interests. The Scholarship Cup was presented to Phi Mu for the second semester of 52-53, and announcement was later made that its members had maintained the highest scholastic average for the entire year.

THE 1954 PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The college Panhellenic Council is the governing body of the twelve fraternities on campus. The organization has as its projects each year the support of an eleven year old Greek war orphan, the grant of scholarships to two non-fraternity women, and the award of the scholarship cup to the fraternity having the highest scholastic average. The proceeds of the Panhellenic Dance will go towards a fund for an interfraternity house. The council also supervises the women's rush season. Officers are Bernice Ireland, President; Sue Magee, Vice-President; Virginia Booker, Corresponding Secretary; Anna O'Toole is the adviser.

Each fraternity on campus has two members in the Interfraternity Council: the president and an elected representative. The meetings are held on the second Wednesday of each month. Administration of the council changes each semester; first semester it was held by Sigma Phi Epsilon and second semester it moved alphabetically to Sigma Tau Gamma. The Interfraternity Dance in November is the main social function of the year. Officers are Jack Trettel, President; Steve Formento, Secretary-Treasurer; Leroy H. Schnell is the adviser.

THE ALPHA . . .

. . . AND OMEGA

Aftermath of the fire in old Leonard Hall.

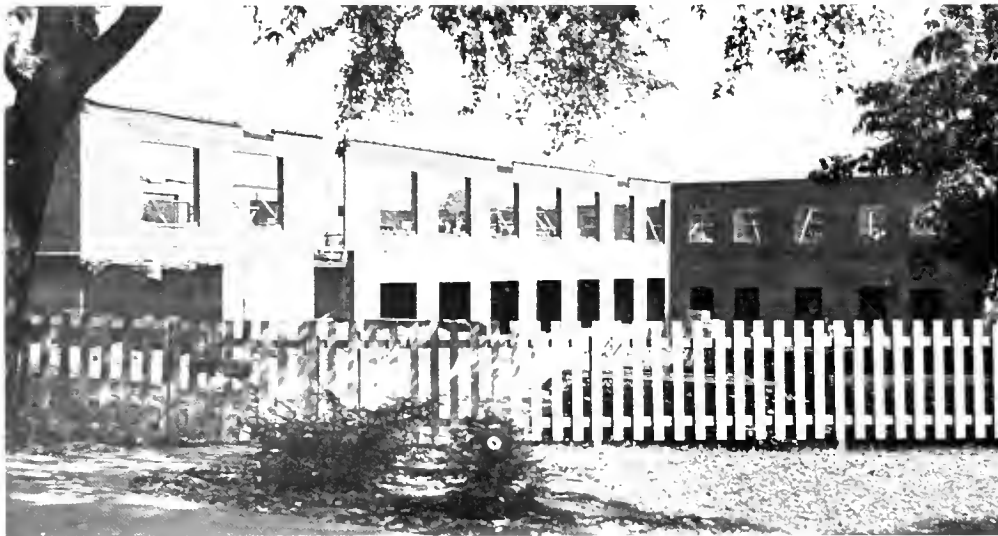

Cornerstone of new Leonard Hall.

LEONARD HALL

Blueprints are drawn, construction crews plan and work, student "sidewalk-superintendents" watch and marvel—and another new building takes its place on Indiana's campus. Layer upon layer of brick and pane after pane of shining glass, new Leonard Hall stands as a replacement for the building that burned in 1952; it also stands as an example of progress and modernity.

One story more to go.

Look, no windows

The ground is broken.

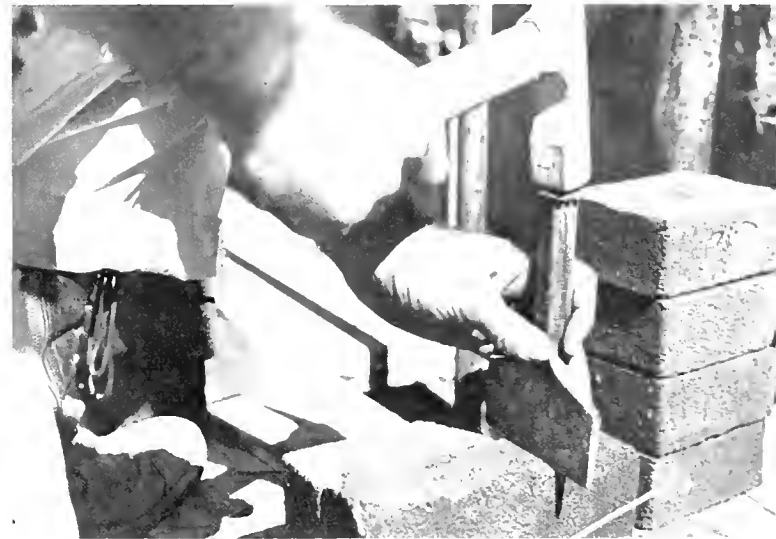

A building from little bricks doth grow.

The boss surveys.

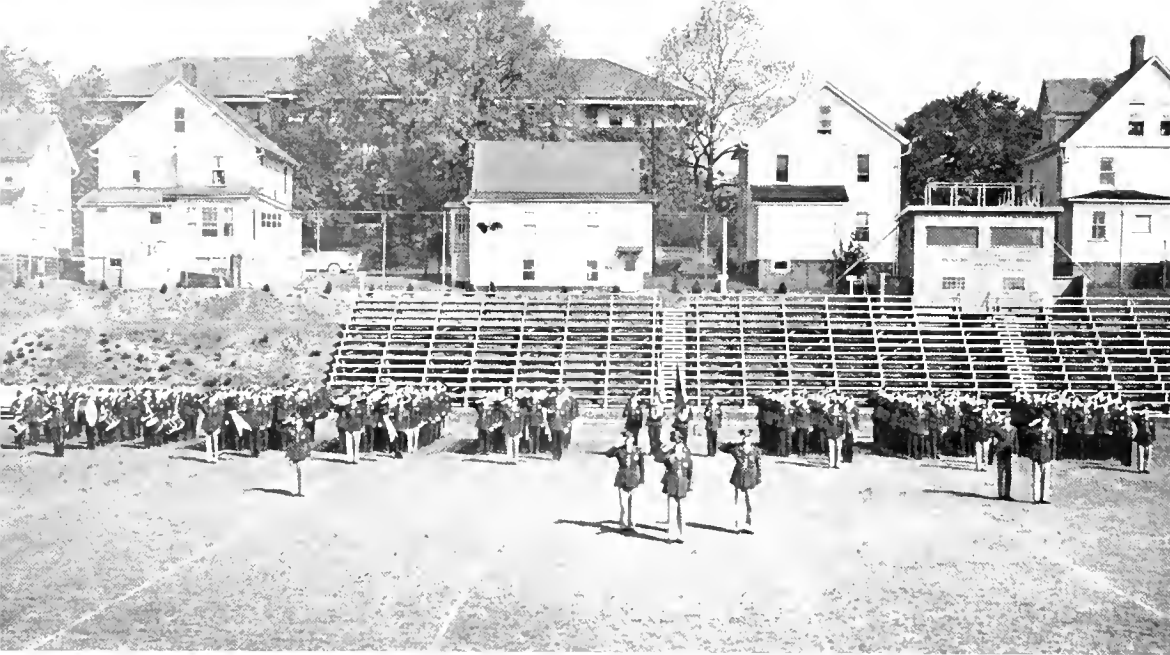

Clang!!!

Materials pile up.

Ready for the roof.
